

Deutsche Bahn International Operations

Delivering excellence in mobility and transport

2023 | Berlin

Who we are

We are the number one railway operator in Europe

Passenger transport

- High-speed / Long-distance
- Regional / Mass rapid / Metro
- LRT / Tramway
- Bus / Ride, car and bike sharing
- Mobility services

3,751 m rail passengers
per year

23,325 trains
per day

5,098 multiple units and locomotives
in fleet

Freight transport

- Rail freight
- Land transport
- Ocean freight
- Air freight
- Logistic services

222 m rail tons
per year

2,632 trains
per day

82,974 wagons
in fleet

Rail infrastructure

- Rail tracks
- Stations
- Energy
- Supporting services

33,469 km rail tracks

5,699 passenger stations

65,085 switches & crossings

Who we are

DB International Operations provides operations and maintenance of all rail segments beyond Europe

Operations & Maintenance

Rail Transport

Long distance/
High speed

Regional/Commuter

Metro

Tram/ LRT/
Streetcar

Freight
Rail/Cargo

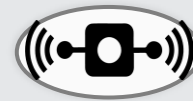

Rail Infrastructure

Track

Station/ Terminals &
Civil Infrastructure

Rail Systems

Technical expertise

The Berlin-Munich high-speed link, operational since 2017, is among our most frequented high-speed connections

Travel time between Berlin and Munich has been reduced by more than 2 hours with our new high-speed connection

4.4m

passengers
per year

10bn

EUR investment

230km

new tracks

25

direct connections
per day per direction, incl.
14 ICE Sprinters*

3:45h

travel time
Berlin-Munich
with ICE-Sprinter*

300km/h

maximum speed

Technical expertise

Offering competitive travel times between German and major European cities, with our high-speed connections

Long-distance high-speed connections in Europe

410,000

passengers per working day in ICE- and Intercity-trains

250

Cross-border services daily

14

European countries in our network

Modern fleet with

367 ICE- and

163 intercity-trains

